THE MOTHER'S LAST PRAYER.
BY J. A. SWAN.
FATHER, the angel of day is retiring
To his rest in the heavenly fold,
And the sky and the clouds wrap around him
Their mantles of azure and gold.
Lo! the angel of life which thou gavest,
Is drooping away from my breast,
And soft through the sorrowful twilight
'Tis leaving the place of its rest.
Now I stand on the broad shore of nature,
And beyond me the happy land lies,
And I hear the melodious voices
Of spirits ascending the skies.
Ranks upon ranks, oh, I see them,
As they climb up in garments of light,
Like the beautiful stars in their courses
Through the wonderful fields of night.
Father, thy hand led me forth on the desert,
Where was nought but the sky and the plain,
And I've labored to find out the pathway
Which would lead to thy mansions again.
But as I passed o'er the waste and the waters,
Of the sad tear of sorrow would start,
And I gathered two beautiful flowers,
And twined their sweet leaves round my heart.
Often I looked to these sweet leaves in sadness,
And them warned from the cross path of strife;
Oh, there's many a tear-watered flower
Has read us the lessons of life!
Father, I've cherished these beautiful flowers,
For to me they were loadstars of love;
I know they will perish in nature—
Let them bloom in thy gardens above.

NORTHERN DEMOCRACY ON THE SLAVERY QUESTION CONTRASTED WITH NORTHERN WHIGERY.
It is now conceded at the South, even by the Whig presses, that, on the Wilmot Proviso question, the Whigs of the North are utterly and soundly—that they are all in favor of the Proviso, and insist upon the enforcement of the principle it announces. The Southern Democrats agree upon this fact. It is indisputable. As to the position of the Northern Democrats on this question, the Southern Whigs and Southern Democrats do not agree upon the facts. At least, the Whig journals do not admit that the facts of the case are as stated by the Democrats. They are laboring to make a different impression on the Southern people on this subject from what the Democratic papers assert to be the fact. The Southern Whig says that the Northern Democrats occupy the same ground with the Northern Whigs—that they are unanimous among themselves on this subject, and will act with the Northern Whigs in opposing the further extension of slavery in acquired territory.
On this point, we take issue with the Southern Whigs. We deny that the Democrats are unanimous on this question, and equally opposed to the South on this question.
We shall show, what these Whig editors know full well, but have not the candor to acknowledge, that the Democrats are divided on this subject—that a portion of them sympathize with the Northern Whigs—act with them and to all intents and purposes, on this subject, are as hostile to the South as Northern Whigs—and Abolitionists. This portion, is the radical Democrats—they are the barn burners in New York and radicals, as they are called in other Northern States. These areal, Wilmot Provisoists, & on this very question have separated from the other portion of the Democracy—the old Hunkers, as they are called in New York—and in other States, Conservatives, which is the more general patronymic.
It is the Conservative Democracy of the North which we allege are opposed to the Wilmot Proviso. It is this party which places itself in opposition to the Wilmot Provisoists, and oppose them on constitutional grounds. This party is the Democratic party of the North. It speaks—it proclaims the principles, and upholds the creed of the Democracy of the Union on constitutional questions; for the constitution furnishes the rallying ground for the great Democratic family of the country. A strict construction of that instrument is the rule of that party, and it is the rule of safety.
Mr. Cass and Mr. Buchanan, have, each in their turn, been most violently assailed by that print upon the occasion of their having come out, at different times, in opposition to the Wilmot Proviso.
In the late contest for Governor and members of the Legislature in New Hampshire, the Whigs and Abolitionists combined. They did not, as hitherto, run separate candidates, but united on the Whig candidate, Mr. Berry—advocacy of Wilmot Provisoism being the common bond of union between them.
Here are the comments of the New York Tribune, of which Horace Greeley is editor: "We regard this election as the death blow of the Wilmot Proviso, so far as any action of the present Congress is concerned. Henceforth Levi Woodbury, Justice of the Supreme Court,

COOLNESS IN DANGER.
No man probably was more cool and collected when beset by imminent danger, than Sir Sidney Smith, an instance of which occurred on his North Sea command, as related, by one of his lieutenants. The Antelope was caught, among the numerous banks in this sea, by a sudden and boisterous blast of wind, when a tremendous strife was raging furiously over the shallows, and the ship became unmanageable; every endeavor was made to wear the ship, but in vain; to star her was out of the question, and nothing appeared to be left but to let her drive into the breakers. Sir Sidney having exhausted all his skill, thus addressed his officers: "Gentlemen, we have apparently acted in concert, but to no effect you see your danger, and although we have done all we could to avert it, if there be any among you who has a suggestion to make, I shall be most happy to hear him; but there is not a moment to lose." All were silent, no one offered the least counsel.
"Then," says he, "there unfortunately is but one opinion. I must believe that you all agree with me that our situation is not a very enviable one and so, my comrades, ringing the bell for his servant, with the utmost apparent composure, he said to the man, "Tell the cook to send up coffee."

The Opinion of Louis Philippe of the Success of the Republic.—The Paris Press gives the following extract from a letter to "M. R.", one of my friends, was present at the embarkation of the ex-king in a fishing boat on Thursday last. When on the point of quitting the French soil, Louis Philippe turned towards R.—and said, "Join the republic frankly and sincerely for I carry with me the French monarchy and I shall descend with it to the tomb. I have been the last king of France. Adieu."

STRIKING COINCIDENCES.
In 1830, no sooner had the Dey of Algiers arrived in France, as a prisoner of Charles X. than the King was dethroned and exiled; and in 1848, no sooner had the Emir, Abdel-Kader, reached the shores of France as the prisoner of Louis Philippe, than the King of the barricades was dethroned and exiled! The Dey, at the fall of Charles, exclaimed "God is just; he has avenged me!" and who would prevent the Marabout Abdel-Kader, from making the same assertion of providential retribution!

LATER FROM VERA CRUZ DIRECT.
By the ship St. Petersburg, Capt. Howard, arrived at this port late, last evening, seven days from Vera Cruz, we are put in possession of dates from that city of the 20th ult. We have verbally from Capt. Howard that on the 29th Col. Wilson gave public notice that on the next day at 12 M. the entire civil administration of that city, with the archives, funds, courts, post office, &c., would be surrendered to the Mexican authorities in accordance with the terms of the armistice entered into by Gen. Butler. Great dissatisfaction was manifested by the American citizens at this arrangement, and the policy and propriety of the movement loudly condemned. The only paper which Capt. Howard brought with him was the Free American of the 30th, from which we have time to make only the following extracts.
FROM THE INTERIOR.—The mail arrived yesterday morning from the city of Mexico. "We have received dates from that city up to the 25th, and from Puebla to the 26th.
DEATH OF GEN. VALENCIA.—We find in the Monitor Republican of the 25th the following paragraph: "Died, at one o'clock this morning, of a violent attack of apoplexy, Gen VALENCIA."
Congress had not yet assembled according to the same paper, which speaks thus on the 25th.
"As yet Congress is not assembled. The Representatives of the Mexican Republic, so indifferent to the public evils cannot appreciate the high position they hold. Private interests ought not to detain them from their duties; men who know the importance of the questions which Congress is called upon to decide—questions of life or death for the country. An egotism of measure, or a very reprehensible cowardice, can be the only motives which detain these men who abandon their country in the hour of danger, and when its destinies are confined to them."

SAN LUIS AND GUADALAJARA.—The Not cioso of the 26th inst. published in Puebla says: "The letters which we have received from these places, and from Queretaro agree in stating that the spirit of revolution was fomenting and was taking a serious aspect. This revolution is said to be headed by Paredes, aided by the Santa Annas and monarchists. One of our friends in San Luis writes as follows.
"We continue to be in a state of tranquillity, but it is said that Don Mariano Paredes is now concealed in this city, and that at every moment a pronunciamento is expected to take place in the style of the one Santa Anna directed and established here on the 12th of January last. The government of his State despatched a commissioner, Don Francisco Estrada, editor of the Epoca, to Queretaro to negotiate a permission for Paredes to reside in this city; but nothing could be worse than this permission, for reasons which I will enumerate by the next courier."

From Guadalajara, we learn in reference to the monarchists, that they are very bold. The high clergy protects them, and it is supposed that Father Baratas is the soul of this plot.
The Monitor of the 23d says, that the Diligence which arrived at Mexico on the 23d had been robbed at a place called Cuauhtlan, about two leagues from Puebla. The diligence encountered there a party of Texians who advised these in the diligence to be on the look out, as they had had a fight with the robbers at Agua del Venerable in which they had lost one of their companions; but at a short distance from San Martin Texmeican on the Mexico side, the same robbers, who on other occasions had robbed it, attacked it again.
On reaching Agua del Venerable the passengers who came, report that they saw the psoa ayojo ajppu apu u suia suuxa p reap
The authorities of Tanapaula called on General Butler for protection against the Indians.
Some troops have left the city of Mexico, for the object of clearing the road of the robbers who i fest it, from Puebla to Mexico.

It is reported that Col. Hays and his regiment are on their way to Vera Cruz. La Reforma, a paper published in Puebla says, on the 25th instant, General Scott will arrive in this city probably to day or tomorrow, on his way to the United States. It is also said that all the volunteers in the American army, will soon leave the Republic; all we know is, that yesterday 17,

Through the wonderful fields of night.
Father, thy hand led me forth on the desert,
Where was nought but the sky and the plain,
And I've labored to find out the pathway
Which would lead to thy mansions again.
But as I passed o'er the waste and the waters,
Of the sad tear of sorrow would start,
And I gathered two beautiful flowers,
And twined their sweet leaves round my heart.
Often I looked to these sweet leaves in sadness,
And them warned from the cross path of strife;
Oh, there's many a tear-watered flower
Has read us the lessons of life!
Father, I've cherished these beautiful flowers,
For to me they were loadstars of love;
I know they will perish in nature—
Let them bloom in thy gardens above.

THE MOTHER'S LAST PRAYER.
BY J. A. SWAN.
FATHER, the angel of day is retiring
To his rest in the heavenly fold,
And the sky and the clouds wrap around him
Their mantles of azure and gold.
Lo! the angel of life which thou gavest,
Is drooping away from my breast,
And soft through the sorrowful twilight
'Tis leaving the place of its rest.
Now I stand on the broad shore of nature,
And beyond me the happy land lies,
And I hear the melodious voices
Of spirits ascending the skies.
Ranks upon ranks, oh, I see them,
As they climb up in garments of light,
Like the beautiful stars in their courses
Through the wonderful fields of night.
Father, thy hand led me forth on the desert,
Where was nought but the sky and the plain,

THE GREAT WESTERN ACT.

Entitled AN ACT to make more plain explicit, indelible and forcible AN ACT entitled AN ACT to establish an ARCADE in the Town of JACKSONVILLE, passed August 1846.
Section 1. Whereas, our advertising year ended first Dec'r last, and because we have not been seen in the Republican since that period, some gummy, little, wite, jebusite or other ite, who would't know himself from a hole in the ground, has norated it from Dan to Beersheba, that the Col. has made himself rich & retired upon his dignity!!
Sec. 2. Now be it enacted by the Colonel himself, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That we'll have it known to every decent, (mark the word) decent man, woman and child throughout the world and parts adjacent, contiguous and lying near to, that for the next ten years, whether we advertise or not, the ARCADE will be in full neat and complete, double action, all over gold operation, and if the Col. be not in attendance "in propria persona" he will be somewhere in the regions round about professionally engaged.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted and widely circulated to our friends and visitors, That our cellars are at all times stored with choice wines, liquors, cordials, syrups &c; and yet, further, moreover besides, we have just received a large and extensive assortment in our line, viz:—Alcohol; champagne, Cogniac, French, American and peach brandy, Holland & Northern Gin; Irish, Monongahela, Tennessee, and W. tump-Nol Ohio whiskey; Jamaica & northern rum; Champagne, Port, Madeira, Claret, Teneriffe & Malaga wine; Porter and Ale; Cordials; Lemon & Sassa-parilla syrup; Tobacco & Cigars of any quality; Candies, Nuts &c;—empty barrels, boxes, bags, bottles and flasks, kegs & kildrinking, in the cellar.

Sec. 4. And be it further and everlastingly enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the most important part of this Act is, that we have but one price, sell for the real Spizrinkum itself, and don't wait on loafers, rowdies, sloshers &c; nor do we wish to be bothered with the mustard seed soul sort any law, usage, will or wish to the contrary yet nevertheless, notwithstanding, and the balance of the circumlocutions in use.
D. W. DORSEY,
Col. Com'dg. 93 Reg. G. M.—
Proprietor of the ARCADE—Professor of Philosophical Enjoyment.—Original of many curious Sayings, Touches & Extras.—Chief Engineer of the Luxuriant Bureau—4th cousin to the Ex-Governor's 3d wife, besides various other pursuits, titles, degrees, dignities, honors, whims, scraps, oddities, and antics of the latest agony—Born at Millidgeville the Capital of Georgia, and dont care the fig end of a johnny-cake if corn is fifty cents a grain, provided there's plenty of it; and provided always further with an eye single to the cash, decency, good breeding, clean clothes, pretty gals and lots of fun—we pay the Preacher, Printer and Piper; love the — and think it nothing but our duty, which makes, just even seven, forty-eight qualifications of a full circle gentleman. All written with my gold pen, this 7th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & forty-eight it being bissextile or leap year and the latter part of the 72nd, and commencement of the 73rd year of American Independence, and of the existence of the ARCADE, the fourth session.

N. B.—Whiskey on Commission by the barrel.—If you have the wherewithall, give us a call, go it boots, shoes and all, and never lose your ball.

T. WARWICK.
WATCH REPAIRER.
(An English Mechanic.)
RETURNS his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage he has received during the past year of his residence in Talladega, and respectfully solicits a continuance. Having served a regular apprenticeship in England, and devoted 30 years exclusively to the business, he is fully competent to adjust properly all work that may be entrusted to his care.
He has just received direct from New York, a very select assortment of Gold & Silver Watches, Gold Guard and Fob Chains, Pencils, Medallions, Ear and Finger Rings, Bracelets, Masonic and a great variety of Lady's and Gentlemen's Breast Pins, Shirt Studs, Collar Buttons, Spectacles, and a fine selection of other Fancy Articles, to which he respectfully invites the public attention; being the largest and finest assortment ever offered in Talladega.
Feb. 21, 1848.—ly.

State of Alabama, DeKalb Co.
SPECIAL TERM OF THE ORPHANS COURT, 28th Feb'y 1848.
THIS day came into open Court, James Lamar, Executor of the estate of Solomon C. Smith, dec'd, and reported said estate insolvent, and filed his several schedules, &c for the action of the court upon the same, and prayed that the said estate should be declared insolvent.
Whereupon it was ordered by the court that the 4th Monday in April next be set apart for hearing and determining upon said allegation of insolvency, &c. and that publication be made once a week for four successive weeks, in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in Jacksonville Ala. notifying all persons in anywise interested in said decedent's estate, to be and appear at the office of the Clerk of the County Court of said County, on said 4th Monday in April next, to shew cause if any why said estate should not then be declared insolvent, &c.

James A. McCampbell, MONDAY 27TH day of March A. D. 1848, at vs. Palletiah Chilton, D. 1848, at
James Moore, RULES before
Eli M. Thomason, and the Register of
Baker Dulany, the 39th District
Northern Chancery Division of Alabama.
CAME the Complainant by his Solicitor and moved for an order of publication as to Palletiah Chilton and Eli M. Thomason non-resident defendants to complainant's Bill; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Register, by affidavit of complainant, that said Chilton and Thomason reside beyond the limits of the State of Alabama & in parts unknown to complainant, and are of lawful age: It is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in Jacksonville, Alabama, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the said Palletiah Chilton and Eli M. Thomason to be and personally appear before the Register of this Court, at his office in the town of Jacksonville, within sixty days from the time of making this order, and plead, answer or demur to complainant's bill as required by law and the rules of this Court, or the same will be taken pro confesso and leave given to complainant to take evidence ex parte as to them. It is further ordered, that a copy of this order be posted up at the Court house door.
